

STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

RS19335

This legislation protects active duty military servicemen from changes made to child custody orders while serving on active duty service. Orders may be amended regarding childhood custody or visitation only after notice is served upon the return from active duty deployment. Notice may be served after sixty (60) days for full time active duty personnel and thirty (30) days for activated national guardsmen.

FISCAL NOTE

There is no fiscal impact to the General Fund or local governments.
